RE: Academic and Professional Reference – Rosa Landers

To whom it may concern,

I have taught and directed Rosa Landers during the last two years of her BA (Hons) Acting degree at the Institute of the Arts Barcelona. Rosa received First Class Honours for her degree, the highest mark, because of her dedication to the course, to her improvement as an actress, and also because of her talent.

I have worked with her on several projects and I have found her to be very hard working in and outside of the rehearsals, attentive to the needs of the director and the production, and passionate about the development of her role. She is rigorous in her exploration in rehearsals; asking probing and insightful questions and demanding the very best from her colleagues. She is conscious of her technique but wears it lightly and is a very positive force in rehearsals.

In performance, she is never less than completely committed to the role and telling the story. She works very well as part of the ensemble and is a very good presence during the whole process. It has been a pleasure to work with her over the last two years and I would recommend her to any prospective director. I look forward to seeing her career develop.

If you need any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Drew Mulligan, MFA, Dip (RADA), MA (Hons)
